I understand that a building to be used for agricultural purposes on land used for agricultural purposes is exempt from zoning code requirements. And that a building for animals, other than two (2) dogs or cats, shall be at least eighty-five (85) feet from every property line.

Sec. 3.03 Agriculture is defined as: The use of land for agricultural purposes, including farming, dairying, pasturage, floriculture, viticulture, and animal and poultry husbandry, and accessory uses such as packing, treating, storing or selling the produce; provided, however that the operation of any such accessory uses shall be secondary to that of the normal agricultural activities.

Sec. 3.06 Building is defined as: Any structure designed or intended for the support, enclosure, shelter, or protection of persons, animals, chattels, or property.

Sec.3.385-3.39 Stables are defined as: Private, a building for beast to lodge and feed in, especially having stalls for horses. Public, building for beasts to lodge and feed in, especially having stalls for horses, operated for remuneration. Private stables are permitted in residential zones.

Sec. 6.02 (P) - No beast or space for hire.
