Items from the floor:

Donald Lynch issued a complaint regarding the fact he could not find a newspaper notice or flyer about the coming zoning hearing on September 13, 2012.

Lee Short explained that a notice was printed in the Western Star and a flyer would be posted at least 24 hours before the meeting. He went on to clarify that Ohio requires newspaper notices to be printed at least 10 days before a hearing. The zoning commission met these requirements.

Mr. Rodney Smith introduced himself as the Morrow Village Administrator, and stated he hopes to work with the township on future endeavors.
